

Stitch with Janet Edmonds

Thursday 21st September 1pm - 4pm

Decorative Herringbone

This stitch is used traditionally for hems but it has the potential for a much more decorative purpose. It can be layered, threaded, whipped, worked straight or curved.

Please bring: A piece of cotton or silk for the background fabric, a piece of muslin for backing, a selection of threads, to include thick and thin, matt and shiny.

For information about Janet Edmonds go to <https://janetedmonds.co.uk>

Booking - prebook and prepay £15.00 using printable form on www.workaid.org/resources > Ongoing Classes